Advantages and strategies in assigning groups

A.T. Miller, Assoc. Vice Provost, Academic Diversity Initiatives
Kathryn Dimiduk, Engineering Teaching Excellence Institute

Tuesday, January 24, 2012
1:15 – 2:45 Hollister 201

5 Reasons to Attend this Workshop

• Students learn more in balanced groups
• Under-represented students feel less isolated with assigned groups
• Balance groups make classes easier to teach
• Rules for assigning groups will be discussed
• You’ll learn to use GroupEng to automate assigning groups

Just bring your class list in an excel spreadsheet and your laptop...And you’ll leave with your groups assigned and a copy of GroupEng for future use!
